An Intimate Affair

Looking for that special place for an intimate dinner event, whether it be an executive dinner, an incentive event or holiday party? We searched out some of the best spots for unforgettable private dining events for up to 15 people.

Estate House SCOTTSDALE

Located in Scottsdale's swanky Southbridge, Estate House is a unique three-story, European-style mansion offering French-inspired wine country cuisine. Its nooks and crannies offer myriad dining options for private parties, including The Conservatory, reminiscent of a sitting room (complete with a relaxing daybed!) and The Den, which offers leather couches, a television and a private terrace. To make sure your experience exceeds your expectations, Master du Soigneur (which means "Master of Looking After") Paul Xanthopoulos is available to cater to your needs.

Morton's the Steakhouse

PHOENIX

Sophisticated elegance and exceptional steaks and wine are Morton's hallmarks. Choose your dining experience from three private rooms and an outdoor patio. Sales and marketing managers are on hand to coordinate any special event requests and details, including themed experiences, wine tastings and audio-visual needs.

The Compound Restaurant

SANTA FE

At the cultural center of Santa Fe, The Compound Restaurant is located in a historic adobe, hacienda-style building. The Garden Room and The Exhibition Kitchen are both available for private dining, and offer great food in unique settings. Your guests will love the extensive Alexander Girard art collection, too.

Elle Wine Country Restaurant

TUCSON

Centrally located in the historic Joeslerbuilt Broadway Village, elle Wine Country Restaurant offers a casual neighborhood setting with several private dining options including its special Wine Room. Situated in the heart of the restaurant, its walls are lined with an impressive display of many of the 200-plus wines available to complement any of the chef's selections, which include organic and locally produced options.

Cucina Rustica

SEDONA

One bite of the Italian cuisine at Sedona's Cucina Rustica and you'll understand why chef-owners Lisa Dahl and Andrea DiLuca's motto is "In food we trust." Nestled in the region's famous red mountains, the restaurant offers a charming Old World atmosphere that is sure to impress—and its Magellan Room is perfect for smaller private parties.

Joseph's Table

TAOS

Offering award-winning Southwestern/Mexican cuisine and an extensive wine list, Joseph's Table promises guests an extraordinary dinner-party experience. "Joseph's Table has effortlessly taken the crown of northern New Mexican cuisine," according to none other than The New York Times, and owner and star chef Joseph Wrede was named one of America's top ten most original in 2000. Intimate dinner parties and large groups are welcomed to the elegant, art-inspired private banquet room, which is available for reservation any night of the week.
